

Bill Miller, CPA

Bill is a tax partner at the accounting firm of Bolinger, Segars, Gilbert and Moss in Lubbock, Texas. He began his career with the firm in 1992 and holds an accounting degree from the University of Texas.

Bill is in charge of the firm's utility tax practice, which provides tax and consulting services to the firm's audit clients with an emphasis on the firm's exempt and non-exempt electric, telephone and agricultural cooperatives and related subsidiary companies. His responsibilities include tax return preparation, tax planning, recommendations for entity selection and organizational structure, and recommendations for structuring plans to allocate and redeem patronage capital.

Bill and his wife, Kim, along with their two children, reside in Lubbock, Texas.