

Phil Blakney, CPA

Mr. Blakney began his public accounting career in 1972 when he graduated from Seattle University with a B.A. in Business Administration with an accounting major. He participated in a variety of different practice areas but discovered a particular interest in working with organizations requiring annual review and audit services. Phil is currently a partner at Cordell, Neher & Company, PLLC and serves as the Director of Accounting and Auditing Services. Phil has been very active with the NSAC. He currently serves on the Accounting and Auditing Committee and is a past member of the Board of Directors and past president of the Pacific Northwest Chapter. He is also currently a reviewer for the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide for Agricultural Producers and Agricultural Cooperatives.

Phil is very active in his community. He is currently a member of the Wenatchee Central Lions Club and serves on the St. Joseph's Parish Finance Committee. He also coaches various youth athletic teams around the Wenatchee Valley. His professional associations include membership with the American Institute of CPAs and the Washington Society of CPAs.

Phil and his wife, Kay, just celebrated their 40-year wedding anniversary. They have seven children and thirteen grandchildren.
