

Marlis Carson

Marlis Carson is Senior Vice President and General Counsel for the National Council of Farmer Cooperatives, a trade association based in Washington, D.C.

In addition to overseeing NCFC's legal, financial, and tax compliance issues, Marlis coordinates the activities of NCFC's Legal, Tax and Accounting Committee on federal issues impacting farmer cooperatives. Marlis also assists in advocating NCFC member positions on federal legislative and regulatory matters and serves as corporate secretary and treasurer for NCFC and its related educational foundation.

Prior to joining NCFC in April of 2004, Marlis served as a tax manager in Ernst & Young's National Tax Department in Washington, D.C., providing tax consulting services to large nonprofit organizations. She is a graduate of The George Washington University Law School and is a member of the Virginia State Bar.