

Robert Cobb Bio

Robert Cobb is a partner in the public accounting firm of Bolinger, Segars, Gilbert & Moss, L.L.P. of Lubbock, Texas. Robert is currently the managing partner of the firm, and in addition, performs audits and other accounting services for clients in the utility and other industries. He is responsible for numerous audits in several states.

Mr. Cobb received his bachelor of science degree in accounting from Lubbock Christian University. He is a certified public accountant holding certificates from Texas, Arkansas, California, Florida, Missouri and Nevada. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants as well as several state CPA organizations. He is a past member of the AICPA public utilities committee based in Washington, D.C.

Mr. Cobb has spoken for numerous organizations around the country regarding audit and accounting issues impacting the utility industry. Mr. Cobb grew up in Southern California, but after graduating from college, chose Lubbock as his home. He resides in Lubbock with his wife Lisa. He has a son, Josh, a graduate of the University of Texas who resides in Austin and a daughter, Allison, a recent MBA graduate from Texas Tech University.