

Mary Griffin

Mary Griffin is Senior Policy Advisor for National Cooperative Business Association. She manages the Cooperative Finance and Tax Council (CF&TC), which identifies and addresses finance, tax and legal issues that have cross-sector impact on cooperatives. Griffin, an attorney, also advocates on behalf of cooperatives before Congress and works to secure more funds for cooperative development in the US. Griffin received her law degree from Temple University and her LLM from George Washington University.