

Eric V. Krienert , CPA- Tax Manager

Eric joined the Auditing Association December 1, 2008. Eric has the primary responsibility for research, training, and special projects involving corporate taxes. Eric has multiple years prior experience with a large, regional accounting firm and brings multi-state tax experience to the firm. Eric is currently serving on the tax committee for the National Society of Accountants and is providing direction and leadership to the grain and cooperative industries in the challenging and fast-changing environment of cooperative taxation.